

NCCN Reimbursement Resource App Privacy Policy

The National Comprehensive Cancer Network[®], Inc., (NCCN[®]) is issuing this privacy statement to keep our valued users informed of activities in place to ensure their privacy. This privacy statement covers the NCCN Reimbursement Resource App (Application). If users have questions or concerns regarding this statement, they should contact Joseph Junod, Director, Information Technology, by E-mail or telephone (215.690.0242).

Collection of Information

Visitors to this app are not required to register with the NCCN, so therefore, NCCN will not use their personal information for data collection nor will we send them email newsletters. We may collect technical information that may also be personal data (e.g. IP-address, device ID number etc.) from your device in order for us to be able to provide the functionality of the Application. This collected information is required for us to verify that your device is accurately registered. We reserve the right to use such information for statistics and user support.

Further, we will access and process information on your specific use of the Application, device information, interactions with other elements in the Application, Google Advertising ID (AAID), and/or Apple Identifier for Advertising (IDFA). Some services that are part of the Application may require a specific consent from you. Where a specific consent is required, we will let you know and ask you to provide us herewith.

Security

In accordance with applicable legal regulations, we undertake any reasonable measures to ensure data security, although we are unable to assure that your personal information will not be subject to unauthorized access, unauthorized use or abuse.

In order to ensure data security, we will in consideration of appropriate technical possibilities, ensure that only authorized persons receive access to the data for legally permissible purposes, protect stored or transmitted data against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss or unintended changes and unauthorized or unlawful storage or processing, unauthorized access or unauthorized or unlawful transmission, and comply with all applicable data protection provisions.

We also recommend that you take additional steps towards protecting yourself and your information, such as making sure you regularly update the software and apps you've downloaded.

Marketing

We will use the information associated with you to be able to deliver our services in the Application. We will not use the information to send you newsletters and for marketing purposes.

Opt-out from data collection and Contact Us

As a user, you may opt-out of all information collection by discontinuing your use of the Application or by informing us by e-mail: usersupport@nccn.org.

Change of Privacy Policy

If NCCN decides to change its privacy policy, NCCN will post those changes to this privacy statement, the homepage, and other places deemed appropriate so our users are always aware of what information NCCN collects, how it is used, and under what circumstances, if any, NCCN discloses it. NCCN will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.
